VACANCY NOTICE

Job Description:

The School District of Milton is seeking an energetic individual for a 6th Grade Teacher at Northside Intermediate School. This position will include teaching two reading and writings blocks with our 6th grade students. A competitive salary and benefit package is offered. This position will begin August of 2018.

Qualifications:

The School District of Milton is seeking an individual who will engage students in the learning process. Candidates should have an outstanding ability to engage students and inspire them to think critically. Candidates should be organized, flexible, and have strong communication skills. Co-curricular coaching and advisor positions may be available. The candidate will work collaboratively with colleagues as a positive and substantial contributor to the school and district; and assume a leadership role in the implementation of district initiatives. High energy, a positive attitude, and compassion towards others are a must!

It is required that applicants must hold or be eligible for WI DPI Certification in Regular Education – 1777 and have the appropriate position code for sixth students.

Experience with Lucy Calkins Units of Study and Readers / Writers workshop is encouraged, but not required. Come join our team in educating and guiding our students to success in the future!

To Apply:

Submit a cover letter, resume, copy of transcripts, copy of DPI license, and a minimum of three letters of reference via WECAN (vacancy id: 35926).

Application Deadline:

Submit all materials via WECAN by June 15, 2018.
